eLuminate™ Online Learning Platform

The eLuminate online learning platform provides the required tools and training to generate and implement the processes and procedures necessary for efficient, high-quality clinical trials. Self-paced courses allow users to complete and revisit individual course modules at any time, while interactive lessons ensure users are engaged and comprehending key information. Created by The Avoca Group subject matter experts, eLuminate is built on up-to-date leading practices from over 120 sponsor, CRO, and clinical research provider companies in the Avoca Quality Consortium (AQC)®.
